Recommended Practices for Choosing a the right moving company

If you plan for a local or long distance moving and have to choose a moving company in Vancouver or from the lower mainland moving companies, You will be offered a wide variety of services at prices that differ from mover to mover, depends on how good the service is:

When are choosing movers in Vancouver, Lower Mainland movers or B.C Movers , it's important to find out all you can about the company

1. Will my goods arrive on time, complete and in good condition?
2. What kind of system are the moving companies be using to offer good services.
3. Do a reference check with your local Better Business Bureau or the company reference list.
4. Ask for a free estimate so the company can come over to estimate and give a written quotation.
5. Ask the moving company for a copy of their insurance policy; never hire a company that does not carry a good insurance coverage for your belongings and make sure they are bonded and fully licensed and insured movers.
6. Is the rate reasonable for the service and size of your move, in the relocation industry, Do not hesitate to ask for a free onsite estimate.

YOU REALLY GET WHAT YOU PAY FOR

7. Cheap movers are not always good, as they will offer cheap service.
8. Make arrangements with your local mover as far in advance as possible. Last-minute calls during the busy season may mean spending extra money or not finding a good or reliable movers, However 1 Pro moving always strives to help its customers in the last minutes.
9. If you're moving into an apartment, reserve the elevator, If you are moving into a house, arrange for street parking if needed.
10. When going for truck rental or van rental, always calculate all the cost involved before renting a truck.
